

Raising Boys' Achievement, Outdoor Learning Course Feedback

Course led by Angela Stanton, Head Teacher at Alfreton Nursery School

Course aims - to be given the opportunity to observe boys in action, engaged in Alfreton Nursery School's inspirational outdoor teaching areas. Delegates were able to see an outstanding Forest School session led by highly qualified Forest School staff team. By the end of the course, all delegates would understand the impact of high quality outdoor experiences on boys' learning.

Did the course meet all your expectations?

- Absolutely – surpassed them! Thank you so much I loved it!
- Yes all and more, it has been amazing
- Yes very informative and inspirational
- Yes
- Yes, lovely to see the setting again.

What did you enjoy most about the course?

- It was so inspiring, can't wait to get back and get going.
- The outdoor area has given me so much to think about.
- Seeing outdoor provision used so effectively and getting great ideas.
- Practical ideas

