What next?

Even if you don't feel able to talk about your wishes with your friends or family, it is important to let someone know that you have filled out this form so that they will be able to refer to it when the time comes. Once you have completed the form, put it somewhere safe and tell someone close to you where it is or give it to them and tell them to look after it for you. You may also want to give details of where the form is to your executor, solicitor or speak to one of our funeral directors who will hold a copy at your local funeral home.

Funeral pre-payment options

By completing this form you have already taken the difficult step of considering the options for your own funeral. A.W. Lymn The Family Funeral Service offer complete funeral plans, or Lymn Vouchers, and can tailor a financial arrangement to suit your individual circumstances.

My Funeral Wishes

"Our family serving your family since 1907"

I would like “Always Look on the Bright Side of Life” played, and everyone to wear yellow.

Have the funeral you want - by making your wishes known.

Celebrate your life, your way

Have you ever thought about what you want for your funeral? You probably already know whether you want to be buried or cremated, but what about the details?

Where should it be held? Do you want particular readings or poems and, if so, which ones and read by whom? Is there a certain piece of music that you would like playing? Perhaps there's even a specific route you'd like your hearse to take.

By planning ahead using my Funeral Wishes, not only will you save your next-of-kin the stress of trying to second-guess what you would have wanted, you'll also be able to put your stamp on your last celebration, ensuring it reflects what is important to you.

Filling in the form

My Funeral Wishes is simple to use: just fill in the sections that are important to you. You can always revisit the form if you want to add additional details. However, bear in mind that a funeral is above all an occasion for your family and friends to express their grief and celebrate your life, so don't feel you need to dictate every aspect of it.

I would like the funeral cortege to go past the old house and pause by the football ground
