Contents of our Children's Services Brochure

Included in this book are many of the services that we offer our clients when arranging the funeral of a child or young person, who has not attained their 18th birthday on the day of death. It does not, however, cover all the services we offer in our adult services brochure but your funeral arranger will be happy to discuss any alternative options with you should you wish.

A.W. LYMN

The Family Funeral Service®

Jackie Lymn Rose

In August 1907 Arthur William Lymn conducted his first funeral and our family funeral business known simply as A.W. Lymn commenced trading. Since then we have continued to maintain the founder's vision of placing the emphasis on quality of service and meeting client's needs rather than striving solely for profit. Although now known as A.W. Lymn The Family Funeral Service this ethos has stood the test of time and after more than 110 years of service we are still in the same family ownership.

We are very conscious of the difficulties you may be experiencing following the loss of a baby or a child and have tried to produce this take away brochure to enable you to look through the options available, in the comfort of your own home, before making any final arrangements. We have three members of staff, Teresa Spencer at our Ruddington funeral home, Ellie Nightingale at our Arnold funeral home and Megan Rosier at our Nottingham funeral home, who all have specialist knowledge and training and are happy to give you full advice and assistance when making the funeral arrangements. However, please feel free to contact your local funeral home from the list on the back cover should you prefer.

Funeral Costs

Children's Funeral Fund (CFF)

For funerals of children who have not attained their 18th birthday on the day of death and still born babies born on or after the 24th week of pregnancy where the burial or cremation takes place in England on or after 23rd July 2019 the Government will make the following payments:

Coffin	Up to £300.00 towards the published price
Cremation fees	The standard published fee
Medical fees	Any applicable fees for Doctors, Medical Examiner and Medical Referee
Cemetery fees	The purchase and interment fees for a selected grave together with the right to erect a memorial but not the memorial itself
Gravedigger fees	The charge for the gravedigger when not included in the cemetery fee above

Third Party Costs

In addition to the funeral directors services third parties will supply some of the essential parts of the funeral. These include (as and when applicable) the services of the cemetery or crematorium, doctors, celebrant or minister, florist, newspaper, printer, stonemason etc. Some of these charges will be claimed from the CFF by either the third party or A W Lymn on your behalf. Examples are:

• Crematorium fee	usually paid by CFF
• All medical fees (where applicable)	usually paid by CFF
• Cemetery fee	usually paid by CFF
• Celebrant's fee	up to £200.00
• Other fees	will be quoted as they arise

As the third party charges vary so much our funeral directors will give advice on an individual basis.

Estimate, Payment & Invoicing

Every funeral arranged by A.W. Lymn The Family Funeral Service will have a written estimate prepared in advance by an experienced funeral arranger, this will need to be signed, along with our contract, by the person making the decisions and ultimately responsible for paying the invoice. The contribution towards the cost of the coffin of up to £300.00 will be claimed directly from the CFF and will be deducted from the amount payable on the invoice. As part of this process a discussion will take place concerning the funding of the funeral. Payment based on the estimated charges should be made in advance of the funeral date and the final invoice will be sent approximately one week after the funeral.

Payment Terms

We do not charge a commercial fee for Children's funerals and as such do not extend credit for these funerals. We require payment in full in advance of the date of the funeral for all our charges and third party fees that will not be paid for by the Children's Funeral Fund (CFF).

When a DWP claim is being submitted the above ruling may be relaxed and credit extended for the amount of the expected Social Fund payment. This would be at our absolute discretion and will only be considered when our representative has both seen and reviewed the completed SF200 and is of the opinion that the claim will succeed. In these circumstances any amount not expected to be covered by the CFF contribution or the DWP grant would remain payable in advance of the funeral date.

Little One

*I close my eyes; still feel you there, just my little one and me.
Our hearts in tune, both intertwined, our union so complete.
A movement here, a murmur there, your way of saying 'Hi';
I stop and pause, wait for more . . . Can't hide my radiant smile.*

*I see your face, it matters not, your face I'll never see.
I hear your voice, a joyous tone of merriment and glee.
Our daytime chats just fill my time; we speak of plans and schemes, of nursery rhymes and playground times and holidays by the sea.*

*I'm alone, I like it here. 'Cos then it's you and me.
No distractions or interactions to disrupt my memories.
I sing to you my favourite tunes, as I do the daytime chores.
I'm always near, my guiding hand, gently clutching yours.*

*You comfort me, no need to share, the reasons I am sad.
Your thoughts are mine; I'm in your shoes, what journeys we'd have had!
I'll never know your loving touch but you touched my heart and soul.
I'll never gaze into your eyes; I'll never quite be whole . . .*

*You've left me now but you're still here; you're mine and I am proud.
This cherished love encases me; I speak your name out loud.
We're side by side, arm in arm, destiny unknown; we'll share our secrets, swear our loyalties and never be alone . . .*

*You are in my spirit, sweet child of mine, your reservation made.
Your portrait hangs inside my soul, to dull my aching pain.
I'm always here, to reminisce, wherever you may rest.
Sleep now, my little one, my friend, my love, my own, my best . . .*
